11.1 The General Meeting is the supreme body of Kofola.

11.2 The General Meeting is authorized to:

11.4 A Convener is obliged to publish an invitation to the General Meeting at the latest 30 days before the General Meeting on Kofola's website www.firma.kofola.cz. Sending of invitations to a shareholder's address is replaced by a publication in the Commercial Bulletin. Except for the methods referred to in preceding sentences a shareholder may also request sending of invitations to a General Meeting of the company to its e-mail address that a shareholder notifies to Kofola no later than 7 days prior sending of an invitation to a General Meeting by means of a written notice sent to the registered office of Kofola whereas a signature on such notification must be legalised. If the shareholder delivers its notification less than 7 days before dispatching of an invitation to a General Meeting the notification concerned shall be taken into account for a following General Meeting. In case of a shareholder - legal entity, an original or a certified copy of a registry extract or another reliable document that will prove the existence of the shareholder and the authorization of the authorized person(s) to sign a notification must be attached to the notification, such a document must not be older than three (3) months. If a notification is signed by a proxy of the shareholder, a proxy must attach a Power of Attorney in writing signed by a shareholder (if a shareholder is an individual) or one or more authorized person(s) on behalf of a shareholder (if a shareholder is a legal entity) in each case with such signature being legalised. A proxy of a shareholder that is a legal entity must attach, along with the Power of Attorney, an original or a certified copy of a registry extract or another reliable document that will prove the existence of the shareholder and the authorization of the authorized person(s) to signed the Power of Attorney on behalf of the shareholder; these documents (except the Power of Attorney) may not be older than three (3) months. If these documents are not in Czech or English language, an official translation of the documents or their necessary part into the Czech or English language must be attached.

In such a case, Kofola delivers invitations to prospective General Meetings also by email to the announced email address. If a shareholder no longer wishes to receive invitations to the prospective General Meetings also electronically to the notified email address, the shareholder shall notify it to Kofola in writing in the same manners as specified above in this paragraph no later than 7 days prior dispatching of an invitation to a General Meeting. If a shareholder causes that the email address that he or she notified to Kofola for the purposes of delivery of invitations to a General Meeting does not correspond to the actual state of affairs or that such e-mail address was in the meantime cancelled and the shareholder has not notified a new e-mail address to Kofola, the shareholder may not seek invalidity of the resolutions of the General Meeting due to the fact that Kofola did not allow the shareholder to participate in the General Meeting or exercise voting rights at the General Meeting on the basis of this fact.

- 11.5 A General Meeting constitutes a quorum if the shareholders present at the General Meeting own shares with aggregate face value exceeding 50% of the registered capital. If a General Meeting does not constitute a quorum within one (1) hour from its anticipated opening, a substitute General Meeting with the same agenda will be convened by the Board of Directors without undue delay, if still necessary, in the manner prescribed by the Czech Companies Act and these Articles of Association. A substitute General Meeting can take place without a necessity to constitute the quorum.
- 11.6 An invitation to a General Meeting must include the statutory information. In the case of a proposal to amend the Articles of Association, also a brief, apt description, and the reasons concerning the intended amendment to the Articles of Association must be cited in the invitation. The full proposal of the amendment to the Articles of Association will be published by the Board of Directors on the website of the Company together with the invitation to the General Meeting and the Company will enable every shareholder to consult the amendment to the Articles of Association in the registered seat of the Company within the period stated in the invitation to the General Meeting; the shareholders will be notified of this right in the invitation to the General Meeting.
- 11.7 If all shareholders agree, a General Meeting can take place also without fulfilling the requirements set for convocation of a General Meeting.

- 11.8 Without previous approval of the General Meeting, making sound or visual recordings of a General Meeting is prohibited.
- 11.9 Kofola must, for each agenda of a General Meeting, include a "Discussion" point and provide for the discussion enough space.
- 11.10 A General Meeting convened on request of qualified shareholders, as defined by the Czech Companies Act, may only be cancelled or its date changed upon the approval by the shareholders submitting the request. In all other cases, a General Meeting may be cancelled, when any extraordinary obstacles to its holding (such as force majeure) occur or when holding a General Meeting would be obviously purposeless.
- 11.11 Any decisions within the competence of the General Meeting except decisions on the amendment of the Articles of Association can also be adopted outside the General Meeting (remotely). The conditions of remote vote will be defined by the Board of Directors and must be specified in the draft resolution. A person authorized to convene the General Meeting will deliver the draft resolution to all Kofola shareholders by publishing the draft resolution in the Commercial Bulletin as well as on Kofola's website. The draft resolution is considered as delivered to all Kofola shareholders on the day it is published under the previous sentence. The shareholders can deliver their votes on the draft resolution within a period of at least 15 days after the day of delivery of the draft resolution. If a shareholder does not vote on the draft resolution they are considered to be opposed to the draft resolution.
- 11.12 The person authorized to convene the General Meeting will make sure that Kofola publishes an announcement of remote vote, the information that shareholders can read the draft resolution and where to find it, the materials related to the draft resolution, and the conditions of remote vote as well as information on how to vote in favour of the draft resolution on Kofola's website at least 10 days before the day the draft resolution is delivered.
- 11.13 The 7th day before the day the draft resolution is delivered to all shareholders is considered as the decisive date for the remote vote.
- ~~11.10~~11.14 The 7th business day after the day of adoption of a remote General Meeting resolution on the distribution of profit and/or other own resources is considered as the decisive date to exercise the right to share in Kofola's profit and other own resources. The General Meeting decision to approve the distribution of profit and/or other own resources will be announced on Kofola's website. This is without prejudice to the announcement of a decision adopted remotely to shareholders within the meaning of Section 420 (1) of the Czech Companies Act.²

12. PARTICIPATION AT GENERAL MEETING

- 12.1 A venue, date and time of a General Meeting will be determined in a manner so as to ensure that a shareholder's right to attend a General Meeting is not unreasonably restricted. It is deemed that a General Meeting convened to begin and end between 9.00 am (CET) and 6.00 pm (CET) on a business day at the registered office of Kofola, elsewhere in Ostrava or in Prague does not unreasonably restrict a shareholder's right to attend a General Meeting.
- 12.2 A shareholder can participate at a General Meeting either personally or through a proxy. The participation of a person designated by the shareholder under Section 399 (2) of the Business Corporations Act is not allowed, except for a person assisting to a shareholder who has disability under the relevant legislation.

In such a case, the authorized person will submit an original or a certified copy of a registry extract or another reliable document that will prove the existence of the shareholder and the authorization of the authorized person to represent the shareholder; these documents may not be older than three (3) months. If these documents are not issued in Czech or English language, an official translation of the documents or their necessary part into the Czech or English language must be attached. An authorized person will submit his identification card or passport in order to prove his identity before being admitted to a General Meeting.
- 12.5 If a shareholder is represented by a proxy, the proxy must, before being admitted to a General Meeting, submit a Power of Attorney in written form signed by the shareholder (if a shareholder is an individual) or signed by one or more authorized person(s) on behalf of the shareholder (if a shareholder is a legal entity) in each case with such signature being legalized. A proxy of a shareholder that is a legal entity must submit, along with the Power of Attorney, an original or a certified copy of a registry extract or another reliable document that will prove the existence of the shareholder and the authorization of the authorized person(s) who signed the Power of Attorney on behalf of the shareholder; these documents (except the Power of Attorney) may not be older than three (3) months. If these documents are not in Czech or English language, an official translation of the documents or their necessary part into the Czech or English language must be attached. The proxy will submit his identification card or passport in order to prove his identity before being admitted to a General Meeting.
- 12.6 Kofola may admit to a General Meeting a shareholder, its authorized representative or its proxy if there is no doubt about their identity and their power to represent the shareholder even if the documents to be submitted under the Sections 12.3 through 12.5 are not submitted in their entirety or with necessary signature notarization.
- 12.7 The Power of Attorney must state if it is granted for representing in one or more General Meetings. At the latest on the day of posting of an invitation to a General Meeting, Kofola shall make available in writing at Kofola's registered office and electronically by posting on Kofola's website a form of a Power of Attorney. Kofola shall enable the shareholders to announce granting or removal of the Power of Attorney through electronic means. Such a notification shall be accompanied by a guaranteed electronic signature based on a qualified certificate issued by an accredited certifying service provider. Details for a notification of granting or removal of a Power of Attorney and requirements for its content shall be announced by the Board of Directors on Kofola's website.
- 12.8 All present shareholders will be recorded in an attendance list (seznam přítomných akcionářů) that will contain information required by the Czech Companies Act. If a certain person is refused to be registered in the attendance list and admitted to a General Meeting, the refusal and its reasoning will be specified in the attendance list. The attendance list must be available in the meeting room until the closing of a General Meeting.
- 12.9 Members of the Board of Directors attending a general meeting shall be permitted to speak whenever they request. Members of the Supervisory Board or the Audit Committee must be admitted to a General Meeting whenever they wish. An auditor is entitled to participate at the relevant part of a General Meeting to acquaint General Meeting approving financial statements with its findings. Other persons can participate at a General Meeting subject to consent of the convener of a General Meeting or a Chairman of the General Meeting.

13. COURSE OF GENERAL MEETING

- 13.1 A General Meeting will be opened by a convener or by a person designated by a convener. If no such person is present at a General Meeting, a General Meeting will be opened by a Chairman of the Board of Directors or by a person designated by the Chairman, or in case of lack of such designation, by the oldest member of the Board of Directors present at a General Meeting. If no such person is present, a General Meeting will be opened by a Chairman of the Supervisory Board or by a person designated by the Chairman. If none of the persons stipulated above can open the General Meeting, the General Meeting will be opened by a shareholder owning shares with highest aggregate nominal value; if there are more such shareholders, the oldest of them (or the oldest person representing them) will open the General Meeting.

The general meeting may decide that the chairman of the general meeting and the minute verifier shall be the same person and as well as that the chairman of the general meeting shall also scrutinise votes provided that it does not jeopardize the due and proper course of proceedings of the general meeting.
- 13.3 A Chairman of a General Meeting arranges for a due course of a General Meeting, including arranging for order of voting, ensuring its proper course, declare the agenda completed, resolve doubts concerning the procedure and manage work of the staff procuring the course of a General Meeting.
- 13.4 A Chairman of a General Meeting may not resign from his position without a significant reason.
- 13.5 After a Chairman of a General Meeting takes up his position, he will open each agenda item according to the order mentioned in the invitation. The Chairman will call a person who suggested a proposal to present the proposal and then will call a person who suggested a counter-proposal to present the counter-proposal. Each shareholder suggesting a motion (i.e. a proposal or counter proposal) has 5 minutes for presentation of its motion, unless the Chairman of the General meeting decides otherwise.
- 13.6 After the motions for a particular agenda item are presented, the Chairman announces what motions have been submitted. The General Meeting shall first vote on proposals submitted by the Board of Directors, afterwards on proposals and counterproposals submitted by the Supervisory Board and afterwards on proposals and counterproposals submitted by the shareholders in the chronological order of their presentation. Once such proposal (counterproposal) is approved, other proposals (counterproposals) shall not be put to the vote.
- 13.7 Prior to the voting, the Chairman asks if there are any objections to the motions, and the General Meeting will listen to these objections, if any.
- 13.8 After the voting, the Chairman declares the outcome of the voting.
- 13.9 A General Meeting may decide that some matters included in the agenda of a General Meeting will be (i) postponed on a subsequent General Meeting or (ii) not discussed at all. Such decision can be adopted only for significant reasons and must be justified. Such decision cannot be adopted in case the relevant General Meeting has been convened on request of a qualified shareholder (unless such qualified shareholder consents to such decision).

- 14.1 Shareholders vote by raising a voting card indicating the number of votes pertaining to the respective shareholder.
- 14.2 Shareholders may also cast votes by correspondence voting. In such a case, shareholders cast their votes in writing at least one business day before a General Meeting is opened. Those shareholders who vote by correspondence voting are deemed present at the General Meeting but only for the purposes of voting for those agenda items for which they have casted votes by correspondence.
- 14.3 A correspondence voting must include:
- (a) name, surname, date of birth and residence address of a shareholder (if a shareholder is an individual) or a representative of a shareholder;

Signatures on the Power of Attorney must be legalized.
- 14.4 In case a shareholder who is a legal entity performs the correspondence voting, a correspondence voting must be accompanied by an original or certified copy of a registry extract or another reliable document that will prove the existence of the shareholder and the authorization of the authorized person(s) to sign the correspondence voting on behalf of the shareholder or to sign the Power of Attorney based on which a proxy signed the correspondence voting. If these documents are not in Czech or English language, an official translation of the documents or a necessary part thereof into Czech or English language must be attached. These documents (except the Power of Attorney) may not be older than three (3) months. Signatures on the Power of Attorney must be notarized.
- 14.5 Kofola may admit a correspondence voting without the documents under the Section 14.4 being submitted in their entirety or with necessary notarization if there is no doubt about the identity of such voting shareholder and the shareholder's power to cast the votes.
- 14.6 A correspondence voting that has been received by Kofola cannot be changed or cancelled. If the shareholder who cast corresponding votes will be also present at the General Meeting, correspondence voting is disregarded.
